

Licensing Online Services for education in CSP

Eligibility: Qualified Educational User Definition

Licenses for the Online Services are available for eligible education customers to acquire through the Cloud Solution Provider program. Eligibility is defined in the Qualified Educational User Definition document which is available to download here: <http://bit.ly/3bCGNP8>. It's important to choose the right document for a specific region since the definition of eligible institutions does vary between regions

Education Subscriptions

- Licenses are added to a 12-month Subscription during which time the price is protected
- Licenses may be added or reduced, currently with no penalty
- Payment is upfront monthly or annually
- No minimums or commitment to cover all users
- Different licenses are available for faculty/staff and students
- Student Use Benefit licenses are also available for some products

Student Use Benefit

Customers licensing all faculty and staff (Knowledge Workers) for qualifying products are eligible for corresponding Student Use Benefit licenses

A qualifying product license enables an institution to order either 15 or 40 Student Use Benefit licenses, dependent on the qualifying product

Relevant $0 SKUs are ordered to obtain Student Use Benefit licenses which are then assigned to students to enable the services

Products included and use rights of Student Use Benefit licenses may be different to those of the qualifying licenses

Rights to use products under the Student Use Benefit expire when a student is no longer affiliated with the Institution
